APRIL 5, 2024

LIGHT + JUSTICE SYMPOSIUM

INTERIOR SPACES

THE NEW SCHOOL
PARSONS

IES

"Light + Justice: Interior Spaces" will explore how indoor lighting is unjust to vulnerable occupants and how to address these inequities in the practice of lighting design.

As a day-long hybrid live and virtual gathering of lighting professionals, researchers, government representatives, and affected occupants, this symposium will address indoor lighting's role in society.

Partnership Opportunities

Supporting this event as a sponsor enables us to cover costs of the hosting this event and will provide brand visibility, messaging and engagement to both the in-person and online audience

Gold Sponsor $7,000

- Primary logo placement on screens, signage, on the website and all promotions
- Two (2) Symposium registrations
- 1-minute video message to be screened and streamed during breaks
- Included in welcome opening message
- Two (2) pull-up banners (sponsor supplied) displayed

Silver Sponsor $5,000

- Secondary logo placement on introduction screen, on the website and all promotions
- Two (2) Symposium registrations
- 30-second video message to be screened and streamed during breaks
- One (1) pull-up banners (sponsor supplied) displayed

Bronze Sponsor $3,000

- Logo placement on screens, signage, on the website and some promotions
- One (1) Symposium registration
- 15 second video message to be screened and streamed during breaks

Supporter $1,000

- Logo placement on screens, signage and website
- Logo to be screened and streamed during breaks

Lunch $2,000

- Logo included on screens
- Company literature can be available in meal room
- Logo and recognition included on event signage
- Pull-up banner in meal room (sponsor supplied)

Donor $100 and above

Event donations with gratitude from $100 - $999
- Logo included on thank you screen
- Logo included on website

Book now to support this event

Contact Peter Hugh at peter@hughlightingdesign.com -or- sales@ies.org

ies.org/events